

2019 Rangeland Summit at a Glance

Preventing Catastrophic Wildfire in California -
The Role for Livestock Grazing

Tuesday, January 15, Stockton

9:00 am – 3:30 pm

Cattle Grazing to Manage Brush - Lynn Huntsinger, Rustici Chair, UC Berkeley

Fire risk increasing unevenly on public and private lands - Van Butsic, UC Berkeley

Post wildfire grazing on public lands I Northern California - Laura Snell, UCANR, Modoc County

Prescribed fire in California: Bottlenecks and opportunities - Jeff Stackhouse, UCANR, Humboldt County

Post fire grazing: How soon for multiple benefits? - Matt Shapiro, UCANR, Santa Barbara County

California wild fire policy – What's next? Will grazing be recognized as a tool?

Ranchers experienced with rangeland wild fire.

POINT BLUE PHOTO CONTEST.

INFORMATION POSTERS.

EXHIBITS

LUNCH & SNACKS provided by Mid-Valley CattleWomen

Registration will open December 3. See website. $75 Regular or $30 Student

Sponsorships and Booths Welcomed

Track new information and related theme posts: www.Carangeland.org and

Rangeland Linkages (subscribe): <http://www.carangeland.org/news-events/e-updates/sign-up/> and Contact: ksweet@cattlemen.net