

CBCIA Award Application

CBCIA OUTSTANDING SEEDSTOCK OR COMMERCIAL PRODUCER AWARD

Date_____

Name of Operation_____

Owner_____

Address_____

Telephone_____Email_____

Operation: Briefly describe your operation in terms of location, number of years at location, breeds, size of operation, the number of cows, calving season and any other details you feel are important about your operation. At every opportunity include genetic and beef improvement uses in your application. This abstract will also be used in publicity (the California Cattlemen's Magazine) and presentation and should not exceed 250 words.

Short and Long Term Goals:

Briefly explain your breeding program:

Selection Criteria and Process (include sire selection and replacement female selection):

Post Weaning Management (if seedstock include performance testing of sale bulls):

Describe the marketing program for your operation:

Describe your environmental stewardship practices:

Describe the most significant changes that have been made in your operation:

List 3-5 most important uses of technology that have helped you meet your goals:

Leadership or activities that you are involved within your community:

CBCIA will award a seedstock and commercial producer on alternate years and will judge the award on the merit of the application. If there is not an outstanding applicant there will not be an award given that year.

Should the award winner decide to apply for the Beef Improvement Award there is a much longer and more detailed form that will be provided from CBCIA.

Please forward the application to:

Karen Sweet
12233 Flynn Rd
Livermore, CA 94550

ksweet@cattlemen.net

Application must be received by August 1, 2019

NOMINATOR:

Name: _____

Title: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____